

LOEWS REGENCY

SAN FRANCISCO
HOTEL

FACT SHEET

- About: The ultimate sky-high urban retreat, Loews Regency San Francisco delivers a modern and understated approach to luxury by going back to the basics with genuine hospitality, incomparable service, and an all-encompassing high-touch experience.
- Opening: Loews Regency San Francisco took over the former Mandarin Oriental in spring 2015
- Location: The hotel is situated in the heart of downtown San Francisco, only four blocks from the City's iconic Embarcadero waterfront. The trademark Ferry Building Marketplace is only a half-mile from Loews Regency, offering an ideal destination for weekly farmers markets, local restaurants, cafés and retail, as well as a breathtaking, up-close view of the Bay Bridge. Favorite dining establishments within a three-block radius from the hotel include Michael Mina's PABU for fresh, high-style Japanese cuisine, Tadich Grill representing San Francisco's oldest seafood restaurant, local staple Blue Bottle Coffee, modern Italian fare at Perbacco, Celebrity Chef Tyler Florence's comfort food and inviting bar at Wayfare Tavern, plus so much more. For active guests, SoulCycle and Pilates ProWorks are each a mere five-minute walk, and those looking to exercise retail therapy will enjoy the nearby Union Square shopping district featuring lively streets lined with retailers ranging from Barneys New York to Burberry and Tory Burch.
- Accommodations: Loews Regency San Francisco boasts 148 stylish guestrooms and seven spacious suites, set within the top 11 floors of a striking 48-story building, the third tallest high-rise in San Francisco. Each room presents an awe-inspiring view of the City by the Bay, and features comfortable furnishings and luxurious amenities including high thread-count bed linens, an oversized workspace with an ergonomic desk chair, high-speed Internet, a high-definition LCD TV, high-quality audio system, and iPod docking station.
- To ensure a special and pampered visit, Loews Regency San Francisco provides beloved Julien Farel anti-aging haircare and body products in every bathroom, in addition to a signature Julien Farel professional hair dryer. Julien Farel is a renowned New York-based hair guru who has amassed a loyal celebrity following; his eponymous salon is situated inside Loews Regency New York.
- Brasserie S&P: Brasserie S&P is a modern American restaurant located on the first floor of Loews Regency San Francisco, named for the hotel's location at Sansome and Pine Streets. Led by Chef Kevin Tanaka and known for highly attentive service, the restaurant presents an approachable menu inspired by locally grown ingredients and comforting, wholesome fare. Open for breakfast, lunch and dinner, Brasserie S&P is known as the go-to spot for the Financial District's power players, serving favorites such as Crab Eggs Benedict and Nutella French Toast. Seasonal dishes including Roasted Corn Bisque and Baby Beets Salad complement mains such as Seared Halibut and Grilled Rack of Lamb.

The Bar at Brasserie S&P:

The bar and lounge at Loews Regency San Francisco features a stylish, sophisticated bar with a menu of seasonal craft cocktails, in addition to a robust wine list with selections that highlight a mix of California Wine Country favorites as well as new discoveries from around the world. Highlights include the Avocado Mezcal Margarita and the Minted Raspberry Mule. "Social Hour" at The Bar is Monday-Friday 3-6 p.m.

A distinctive treat, Loews Regency San Francisco is one of only a handful of establishments in the City to offer a complete, authentic tasting of LOUIS XIII, Remy Martin's high-end cognac that dates back to the 19th century. Distinguished among the finest cognac products ever produced, each bottle is a blend of 1,200 cognacs ranging from 40 to 100 years old, across three generations of Cellar Masters, resulting from the combined labor of 10,000 people. Guests can visit Loews Regency San Francisco's Brasserie S&P restaurant or Bar/Lounge for an exclusive tasting, which is prepared using the LOUIS XIII requisite, signature glassware. Tastings range from $90 for a ½ oz. pour to $340 for a 2 oz. pour.

Maack Spa:

Maack Spa at Loews Regency San Francisco is a world-class sanctuary nestled amid the bustling heart of the City. Senses are soothed from the moment guests step through the door, with ambient music, relaxing aromas, and warm, personalized service that sets a new spa standard in San Francisco. The thoughtfully curated treatment menu at Maack Spa offers something for everyone, from a list of Wellness Journeys that are tailored, completely personalized experiences based on an individual's needs, to aroma analysis, fitness training, yoga, stress-relief massages, and cutting-edge body treatments and wraps. A selection of facials are done by highly trained technicians using luxurious Natura Bissé skincare products from Barcelona. Maack Spa's Pronto Pampering Services are ideal for business travelers or locals on the go, offering prompt yet effective 30-minute treatments such as a fourhanded massage and a Carboxi Express Facial, which uses CO<sub>2</sub> to fight signs of aging and revitalize skin. The Spa has three luxurious treatment suites and one expansive couples' suite, each with customizable lighting and private rainforest showers, changing areas and vanities to guarantee a truly personal experience.

Fitness Center:

The spacious third floor Fitness Center is open 24-hours a day and offers cutting-edge Technogym equipment machines, ample free weight and stretching areas, and views over Sansome Street. Guests are provided with complimentary amenities including headphones, cold towels, fresh fruit and bottled water.

Sky Deck Yoga:

Maack Spa offers Sky Deck Yoga each Saturday morning from Memorial Day through October. In partnership with San Francisco-based Wheel House, Sky Deck Yoga is a unique, intimate outdoor class experience taught 40 stories into clouds, overlooking the City and bay. Sky Deck Yoga is open to both hotel guests and locals for a set fee. Post-class, guests are rewarded with refreshing house made green juice, and extended a 20 percent savings on treatments at Maack Spa.

Weekend Wine Down:

Weekend Wine Down is a hosted wine hour for hotel guests that occurs on the Sky Deck on Friday and Saturday evenings during sunset on select months. An addendum to this, Culture in the Clouds debuted in 2016 as a means to celebrate the local culture and give guests an authentic taste of the Bay Area. The monthly series invites hotel guests to sip and sight-see on the Sky Deck while enjoying epic views and the best of San Francisco's creative and cultural community – with intimate, one-of-a-kind experiences with the San Francisco Ballet, Dandelion Chocolate, Cuyana, and other top cultural institutions, organizations and brands.

Meetings & Events:

Loews Regency San Francisco is home to five exquisite meeting and event spaces, each with its own distinct personality and special touches, making the venue a top choice destination for businesses and group gatherings directly in the heart of San Francisco. The breathtaking Sky Deck at Loews Regency San Francisco soars above the clouds at 40 stories high, boasting the tallest outdoor event space in the City and displaying the most dramatic views of the Bay and Downtown San Francisco yet to be seen. The hotel holds 5,145 square feet of meeting space in total spread across its five distinct venues, each of which has floor-to-ceiling windows offering ample natural light. Loews Regency San Francisco is equipped with top of the line amenities for business meetings large or small, including state-of-the-art technology and A/V equipment, custom catering menus, a 24-hour business center, and dedicated staff providing the highest level of personalized service and a keen attention to detail.

Additional Services:

Pet-friendly travel includes gourmet room service menus for cats and dogs, and creature comforts such as specialized bedding, leashes, collars, water bowls, treats, dog-walking route maps, and more. There is a pet fee of $100 per stay for up to two pets per room.

Guests can take advantage of the complimentary house car for short trips within the city Monday–Friday, 7–9 a.m. and each evening, 5–11 p.m.

The hotel offers express service dry cleaning and complimentary overnight shoe shine service.

The Business Center features two private workstations, with printing and scanning capabilities, and is open 24 hours a day with guestroom key access.
